

Silver Spoons Afternoon Tea Menu

Stirring up nostalgia

Available from 2pm

The history of Afternoon Tea

Afternoon tea is a quintessential part of British culinary tradition and at Silver Spoons Tearoom we want you to enjoy this elegant custom of a bygone era. Afternoon tea first came in to being in the 1840s. Anna, Duchess of Bedford is credited with introducing it as an afternoon meal, as members of high society generally did not eat dinner until 8pm. Many people found themselves very hungry between lunch and dinner, and so afternoon tea became an enjoyable time to relax and catch up with friends and family.

At Silver Spoons we offer you a choice of the finest loose teas or our locally roasted coffee, all served in delicate china and silver pots. We now offer a variety of tea menus to satisfy your appetite and palate but all will include a selection of finger sandwiches with a variety of fillings, delicious bite size cakes and/or scones, served with delectable preserves and clotted cream, and displayed on a beautiful china cake stand.

This mouth-watering experience ranges from £8 per person. We are also able to provide a full gluten free afternoon tea.

Our Teas

English Breakfast - Bright, full-bodied and full of flavour, loose English Breakfast is perfect for clearing away your cobwebs at any time of day. Ask for our decaffeinated version.

Darjeeling - A light and distinctive tea from the district renowned as the world's most famous tea.

Earl Grey - Light, fragrant and with a distinctive bergamot and lemon flavour.

Green Tea - As dawn breaks and the dewy mist hangs in the air, the first buds and leaves are picked to lock in the fresh green flavour.

Jasmine Green Tea - Layering the white jasmine flowers between green tea leaves allow them to release their perfumed, floral fragrance into the tea.

Camomile - Delicate, floral and seductively soothing

Camomile & Spiced Apple - A soothing blend of floral, honey-like camomile, sweet apples and aromatic cinnamon.

Liquorice - Known for centuries for its soothing properties, this tea has a sweet, yet refreshing, aniseed flavour that lingers on the tongue, a perfect balance of rich sweetness and mellow spice.

Lemon & Ginger: Revive your senses with real pieces of warm, spicy ginger blended with the fresh, zesty taste of lemons. It's perfect after a meal, as ginger has traditionally been used to aid digestion.
